News release

Embassy of El Salvador in the United States of America
Washington, D.C., 1st March 2011

Ambassador Francisco Altschul Launches Facebook Page

(Washington, DC) The Ambassador of El Salvador in the United States, Arq. Francisco Altschul, has launched a Facebook page. The site's purpose will be to educate the public in a timely and frequent manner about the Government of El Salvador's position on key issues, developments in bilateral relations between our country and the U.S., events organized by the Salvadoran local community in the United States and progress made by President Mauricio Funes' Administration.

Those interested may access the site at: <http://www.facebook.com/EmbFAltschul>

Ambassador Altschul said that the page will inform the public on developments related to U.S. President Barack Obama's upcoming visit to El Salvador this March. "Those who visit our Facebook page will be able to stay in the loop about progress made and events carried out related to the upcoming visit of President Obama to our country," said Ambassador Altschul.

"This site will be of utmost importance for our embassy's mission to engage with members of English-speaking media and U.S. citizens in general," said Ambassador Altschul. The representative of El Salvador reiterated that they are seeking to "disseminate the significant bilateral agenda that we are developing with the United States on issues such as poverty reduction, migration and regional security."
